

Please, Please, Please do not allow the action of exempting existing clients of Banks, credit cards and phone companies to be allowed to bypass Indiana's excellent telemarketing opt-in ban list. The Indiana law and the weaker federal law are some of the best consumer protection laws enacted. Please don't allow an laudable piece of legislation to be circumvented by commerical intersts.

Thank you

Doug Williams